

Floyd County Parks and Recreation Parent Code of Conduct

Floyd County Parks and Recreation is dedicated to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment for all county participants including, but not limited to, full & part time staff, volunteers, parents & guardians, youth, game officials and all other citizens involved in our scope of services. Participants are expected to abide by this Code of Conduct throughout all Floyd County Parks and Recreation facilities, live and virtual events, programs, activities, and online platforms.

Floyd County Parks and Recreation and the County of Floyd has zero-tolerance for any form of discrimination, harassment, and unacceptable behaviors such as unsportsmanlike conduct.

Unacceptable Behavior is defined as:

- Harassment, intimidation, or discrimination in any form
- Verbal abuse of any youth, volunteer, staff member, game officials, service provider or other spectators in attendance.
- Examples of verbal abuse include, aggressive or threatening behavior included but not limited to foul language; verbal comments related to race, gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, religion, and national origin; inappropriate physical appearance including inappropriate attire; and threatening or stalking of any individual.
- Theft or damage of any/all property including facilities and sports equipment

If a participant engages in harassing behavior, whether in person or virtually, Floyd County Parks and Recreation reserves the right to take any action deemed necessary and appropriate including their immediate removal of participants from the event/league without warning or refund. Breaches of this Code of Conduct may result in disqualification from attending and participating in future programs, activities, and events sponsored by Floyd County Parks and Recreation.

The Floyd County Parks and Recreation Department strives to create an environment in which all citizens feel safe and supported during the duration of services. All individuals interacting with Floyd County Parks and Recreation services agrees to immediately bring all questions, concerns, and grievances to a full-time staff member of the department. The department can be reached by calling 540-745-9363 or emailing Recreation@flodcova.org

I understand the above code of conduct and agree to adhere to it during all Floyd County Parks and Recreation activities:

Name: _____ Sign: _____ Date: _____